Mr. James O. Blackstone, III

Acworth, GA 30102-2573

Dear Jim:

Thank you for the taking the time and making the effort to write me in response to my query in Family Puzzlers. I apologize for the delay in answering you; however, I recently moved my bachelor brother who has Alzheimer's disease into a care center and have really had my hands full tending to everything. My genealogy efforts have been quite minimal for some time now.

I am sending you a descendants outline of Isaac (Otto) Hottow who most genealogists concede was the original immigrant of the Hutto family. Unfortunately, I have not run across your James and Virginia. My part of the family migrated from South Carolina to Henry County, Alabama. I do have other research materials on the family. Let me know if you can figure out where your group branches off and I'll try to go through my paperwork to send you any pertinent information.

The copies of the pages from the "Confederate P.O.W." book did give me one bit of information I didn't have. It lists a Jos. J. Hutto, a Pvt. in F Company 53 Alabama P.R. One of my great-great grandfather's sons was Joseph, but all I have is the name and possible birth date. His father's will dated 1882 listed him as deceased.

Please excuse the poor print quality of the chart. I don't know what's happened to my printer - probably just out of whack from not being used in so long!

Happy hunting - and best wishes for a joyous holiday season.

Sincerely,

Nelda M.

Nelda H. Martin

HUTTO, ISAAC.

BARNWELL DIST., S. C.

Isaac Hutto was a son of Henry Hutto, R. S., and his wife Ann Zorn Hutto (see Vol. II), and was born about 1795 in Barnwell District, S. C. He spent his life there, dying at the young age of 32 years in 1827. He had married Sarah Delk, daughter of Frederick Delk of that county (or District), and she with two children survived him. The two children were:

1. Nancy b. 1816, m. William Hughes (Vol. II).
2. Isaac Delk b. 1818, m. Sarah Lee, dau. of Joshua (Vol. II).

Daughter of Henry Hutto

Mrs. Hutto married William Touchston in 1828, and they moved to Lowndes County, Georgia, in 1833 along with the families of Jacob Hughes and William Hughes and others moving at that time. The Barnwell County estate records show that Mrs. Sarah Touchston petitioned the Ordinary of Barnwell District on Jan. 12, 1832, stating that she was the widow of Isaac Hutto, and that her four-year-old son, Isaac, was entitled to a distributive share of the estate of his grandfather, Henry Hutto, deceased, and she asks that her brother-in-law, William Hutto, be appointed Isaac's guardian. On the same date, she filed a similar petition for her daughter, Ann (who gradually came to be called "Nancy" in later years). William Hutto was appointed guardian for the two children.

Mrs. Sarah Hutto-Touchston had four children by her second husband, William Touchston; they lived first in Lowndes County but later moved to Clinch County where the children were reared and lived. Isaac D. Hutto, named above, came with his mother and stepfather to Georgia and married in Lowndes (now Lanier) County, afterwards moving to Clinch County, where he became a well-known and greatly beloved Primitive Baptist minister.

came the first descendant of Henry Hutto, R.S., to be admitted as a member of the D.A.R., on his service. She was admitted Oct. 24, 1951; National No. 402731, member of John Floyd Chapter, aforesaid. Mrs. Heath and Mrs. Moseley are great-granddaughters of James Touchston and his wife Rebecca Hutto Touchston.

Mrs. Sarah Delk Hutto, widow of Isaac (son of Henry and Ann), later married William Touchston, and moved to Lowndes County, later to Clinch. Rev. Isaac D. Hutto, and Nancy who married William Hughes (q.v.), were the children of said Isaac and Sarah, and lived in Clinch County.

FAMILY RECORD OF ALLEN HUTTO
DICTATED TO JOHN R. HUTTO

By

HIS FATHER, ALLEN HUTTO
September 29, 1909

I, Allen Hutto, was born in Barnwell District (County) South Carolina, April 17, 1828. My father's name was Jacob Hutto, born in S. C. Nov. 17, 1793. My mother, Elizabeth Gillam Hutto, was born June 4, 1792. My Grandfather was named Henry. He died before I could remember. He was a soldier in the American Revolution and was so badly wounded that he remained a cripple the rest of his life. Brother Henry remember seeing him. My maternal Grandmother was Anne Zorn. I remember seeing her twice. I was about four years old at that time. She lived to be very old, possibly ninety or more.

Their oldest son, Uncle Bill Hutto, had a son named James. He had two children, a son and a daughter. He first married a Felder. His second wife was Drucilla Turner. They had no children. He was a second Lieutenant in the Indian Wars in Florida. He was also sheriff of Barnwell district for four years. Jim was captured by the Yankees during the Civil War. He was not an active soldier in the war, but the Yankees regarded him as a dangerous man to their cause. He was old and died on the march. I think cousin Henry was captured with Jim and died in captivity. He was rich, had two plantations, and 60 Negro Slaves. Henry was also in the Indian Wars. They had another brother, Isaac. I know nothing about him. Uncle Billy had another son, Jackson, who died in S. C. and left a family. Another son was named Jacob. He and his son-in-law were in the Confederate Army. Uncle Billy's youngest son was named Dave. He reached the rank of Colonel in the Confederate Army, Uncle Billy had two daughters. Mary married Silas Eaves and lived in Barnwell district. His daughter Anne married Henry Kennedy, a deacon in the Baptist church. They were wealthy.

My second uncle was named Isaac. He had a son Isaac. I was not well acquainted with this family. Isaac Jr. as I remember, went to Georgia at an early date and became a Primitive Baptist preacher.

Uncle Henry Hutto had three sons. As I remember, they were Jacob, John, and Nickolas. Jacob went to Dale County, Alabama before my father did. We moved to Alabama in 1836. Jacob married late in life. John moved to Clark County, Alabama. He had several children. Nickolas died in Dale County, Alabama. He was a fine looking man, but drank some. He had two girls by his first wife. I don't know about his last wife.

I don't know much about Uncle Charlie Hutto. He moved to Pike County, Alabama about 1838. He first married a Jeter and they had a daughter. His second wife was a widow Jeter, who was a Gillam before her first marriage. They had three daughters: Rebecca, Susie, and Vina (Lavina). Uncle Charlie had a son named Jimmy. Jimmy was in the Confederate Army. I met one of Susie's sons in the Army. One of Uncle Charlie's older sons was found dead in a fence-corner.

My fathers twin brother, John, lived and died in South Carolina. I never knew anything about his family.

Uncle Nickolas Hutto lived and died in Barnwell County, S. C. He married a widow with a son named Willis. Uncle Willis had a son named Nickolas who served in the Confederate Army. He married Susan Jeter. Uncle Nickolas second son was named Benjamin. He married a Bloom. When I was in the Confederate Army, I visited in S. C. and spent some time in Ben's home. He was a little younger than I. The third son, Gideon, was in the Confederate Army. I don't know if he lived through it or not. I don't know about Uncle Nickolas's girls.

Aunt Nancy Hutto married a Delk. They had two sons: Jacob and Henry. She had a girl named Elizabeth.

Aunt Polly Hutto married Jake Jackson. They moved to Dale County, Alabama. They had two sons, Jim and Elvin. Elvin was in the Confederate Army. They had four daughters, Drucilla, Kathy, Jane and Rebecca. Aunt Rebecca moved to Georgia. I don't know about the family.

When I was on my furlough I told you about, I stopped at a man's house to inquire about the Huttos. He had lots of property and was interested in the outcome of the war. He said, "You have no reason to be ashamed of your family. There's not a coward in the bunch. They are all in the Army fighting for our cause."

Huttos not of My Immediate Family

There were two brothers, George and Dave Hutto whom my father called Uncle. They were South Carolina's and lived in Henry (or Dale) Counties. The town was Abbeville. Brother Henry went to see a man hanged at Abbeville and the Sheriff was George Hutto.

Cousin John Hutto moved from S. C. at a very early date to Clark County, Alabama. Jacob and John served as justice-of-peace. They were Methodist. Jacob was a better man than John. I heard he, John, took to drinking.

There is a tradition that two Hutto brothers came to S. C. at a very early date. I was told when a child that they were of Dutch Ancestry. (The word "Dutch" in those days usually referred to most any person of European descent whose native language was not English). (Added by J. R. H.)

Record Of My Father's Family

My father was a great hunter and fisherman. He joined the U. S. Army in the War of 1812, but I don't think he saw much active service. He was too young in the early part of the war. When I was eight years old, in 1836, my parents moved to Alabama. They lived principally in Pike and Coffee Counties. He was a man of medium size, drank excessively for many years, but was always kind to his family. He died at the age of 77 of kidney trouble. He was buried at Pleasant Grove Church Cemetery, a few miles south of Lincoln, Alabama. (In 1947 his descendants had a monument placed at his grave.) The inscription reads: Jacob Hutto, son of Henry and Anna Zorn Hutto, born in S. C. 11-17-1793; Died 1870. My mother had black hair that never turned gray. She was badly stooped with rheumatism. She was buried in a wide casket and was laid on her side. (Through much effort her grave has been found, buried at Hopewell Church near Troy, Alabama.) On her tombstone is: Elizabeth Hutto; born June 4, 1792; died December 30, 1878. She was about 86 and one-half years old.

Henry J. Hutto, my father's oldest child, was born Dec. 29, 1820. He married Lou Gilmore. They had sons; John, Monroe, Joe, Ivey and Taylor. Joe died of measles in the Confederate Army. Ivey was with me part of the time in the Confederate army. All had families except Joe.

My oldest sister, Sarah, was born Dec. 8, 1822. She married Bill Posey, and reared a large family. John, the oldest son, married an Emerson. They in turn had two sons, Henry and Dick. Aunt Sarah had daughters, Sarah Ann, Georgia Ann, and a daughter named Mary. I think one of the daughters married a Taylor.

My sister, Elizabeth, was born in 1826. She married Hyram King. The Kings were Primitive Baptist. They had a large family. Their sons were Ellis, Allen, and one named Charlie, as I remember. I do not remember the names of her daughters. One it seems was named Mary Ann.

Sister Matilda was born Jan 26, 1832. She married Daniel Cole in Pike County, Alabama. Cole was a dark complexioned man. They had three or four children. My sister died rather young. Cole married the second time to Malinda Jackson.

My baby sister, Susan Ann was born Aug. 14, 1834. She married George Bennett. She has sons, Jim Monroe, Allen, Willie, and Guy. Their oldest daughter was named Millie. Another daughter, Alice, married a Bozeman. They had nice families. Some of the Bennetts live in Arkadelphia, Ark. Some of them live in Texas.

Record Of My Family

My first wife, Sarah Bennett, was the daughter of Redman Bennett. His son, George Bennett, married my youngest sister. Our children are double cousins. My wife was born Sept. 17, 1831. She was of medium size and had dark curly hair.

My oldest child, Jane Matilda, was born Sept. 18, 1851. She married William Molloy. She died in Wise County, Texas several years ago. Their oldest child, Anna, married first John McCullars. He died of Tuberculosis and they had no children. Later she married Tom Dixon of Wise County, Texas. They had several children and still live in Wise County. The second daughter Willie, married Jutty O'Kelley. His father rented land from me nine years in Alabama. Their oldest child is named Jimmy. Jane had two sons, Arthur, and John. They were both married and have families.

Our oldest son, Thomas, was born Feb. 23, 1853. He died in Florida in Dec. 1854. Our second son Jacob, was born in Florida May 9, 1857. He died in August 1861.

Our third son, George Washington, was born in Florida Jul 23 1859. His first wife was Polly McReynolds. One child survives, Kinie (Katherine) Portwood of Southland, Texas. They have one son, Lester Portwood. George's second marriage was with Susie Jarman of Eastaboga, Alabama. They have sons; George, Wilson, John Willie and the daughters names are, Pearl, Rilla, Della, Edna, Ethel, Winonna, and Elene.

Sarah Ann Hutto was born Aug. 17, 1861. She married Jim Hunnicutt. She is dead, and they had several children and live in Alabama. Allen Augustus Hutto, my preacher boy, was born June 19, 1863. He married Margaret Acker in Talladega County, Alabama. They have sons, Jasper Cunningham and Spurgeon.

Charles Nickolas Hutto was born Jan. 30, 1866. He married Della Stine of St. Clair County, Alabama. They have sons; Jim, Lelus, Herman, and Verna. They have daughters; Emma, Lillie, Ruda, Alta and Reba. They live in Texas.

Millie Ann Hutto was born Mar. 23, 1868. She married Joe McReynolds of Jacksonville, Ala. He was a kinsman of Kinie's mother. They have sons; John, Amos, Macon, Gaston, Jacob and Hollis. Their daughters are Maude, Ola, Gladys and Vera.

Our youngest daughter, Maggie, was born Dec. 2, 1869. She married Jim McCullars. She died in Alabama. They had a daughter Leola, and sons Charles, Allen and Henry. Jim McCullar died of Tuberculosis.

James Redmon Hutto was born May 13 1875. (One child was born dead between Maggie and Jim, but was never named). Jim married Etta Martin of Wise County, Texas. They have two sons, Homer Hobson, and Charles Marvin and one daughter Marjorie Martin.

Our youngest son, Joseph Benjamin, was born October 22, 1877. His mother died before he was two days old. He married Emma Stine, a sister to Nick's wife. They have two sons, Hovell, Howard, and a daughter Alma. My first wife was the mother of 13 children.

My Second Wife and Family

My second wife was Mrs. Margaret Allen. She had no children by her first husband. Her maiden name was Teasley. Her mother's maiden name was Virginia Guinn. They were Virginians. My wife had an Uncle Thomas, a teacher, and was last heard of in the Confederate Army.

(Added by J. R. H.) My father lived in Florida six years, while there, was converted under the preaching of a Methodist Missionary, joined the Methodist Church, but after returning to Alabama joined a Baptist Church. When asked, why? His reply was, "because I believed as the Baptist do." He refused to be a deacon because he said, "I was not apt to teach."

My wife was born in Talladega County, Alabama, August 17, 1845. Her family, as were mine, were Methodist. She was converted at 15 and joined a Baptist Church by "preference."

Our oldest son, John R. Hutto, was born in Lincoln, Alabama, Sept. 29, 1879. (Added by J. R. H.) My mother tells me I was born on Monday morning. Dr. W. T. Castleberry, attending. I married Rebecca Nelson at Abilene, Tex., August 2, 1903. We have one son, Nelson Allen, born in Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, Dec. 12, 1904, educated at Hardin Simmons University, and Columbia. Married Pauline Hardesty, and is now head of Journalism Department, Sunset High, Dallas, Texas. They have two daughters, Emily Francis, and Erma Nell. (This has all been added by J. R. H. in 1950).

Our second son, Henry Guinn, was born Feb. 26, 1882. Our third son, Theodore Burns (named after a good neighbor) was born Aug. 28, 1884. These children died within three weeks of each other and were buried at Eastaboga, Alabama, by the side of my first wife.

Our youngest son, William Webster, was born at Lincoln, Apr. 17, 1887, on my 59th birthday. (Added by J. R. H.) He married Mattie Few Meredith of Waco, Texas. They have four children; Meredith, Clopton Allen, Lois and Addie Margaret. (J. R. H.)

Record of My Mother's People.

My mother was Elizabeth Gillam. The family came to S.C. from Virginia. She had brothers John, Jim, Joe and Thomas. Her sisters were Patsy, Susie and Lavina. Patsy married a Richardson. Susie married Uncle Charlie Hutto. They moved to Florida where Uncle Charlie died. Lavina married John Patrick. They had sons, George and John B. Patrick, born 1832, William Lucius, born 1834, James Edmond, born 1836, Carolina Lucia, born 1839, Sarah Elizabeth, born 1844. Charles Marion, born 1842, George Washington, born 1850. John B. Patrick, known as Col. John B. Patrick, was an officer in the Confederate Army. He spent the most of his life as an educator, founded the Patrick Military Institute at Anderson, S. C. His son, Dr. Robert G. Patrick, was president for several years of Judson (Baptist) Female College, Marion, Ala. This Institution pioneered in America in the education of women. Some of the above information was furnished by J. Patrick Sullivan, treasurer of the Sullivan Hardware Co., a large chain-store with eight or ten branches in S. C. His mother was my father's first cousin. Concerning her mother, Lavina Gillam Patrick, she said, "she had the reputation of being a most beautiful woman." A grandson writes of her, "My grandmother was from S. C. and was a very beautiful woman." My father, Allen Hutto, said to me that his mother was a "goodlooking woman." These facts throw light on our grandmother's people. (Added by J. R. H.)

LATER FACTS ON FAMILY HISTORY

Many of the facts herein cited were in a letter to John R. Hutto written by Jasper C. Hutto, from Orangeburg, S. C., Oct. 12, 1938. The facts were taken from the Episcopal Church records of Orangeburg. In July 1735 two ship loads of Swiss and German (Austrians) landed on Edisto Island, S. C., and proceeded up the river a distance where they founded the town of Orangeburg. These immigrants were looking for homes and religious freedom. They were doubtless of the Evangelical Reform or Luthern Churches. Their Swiss Minister, Rev. Geissendaner went to England to receive ordination as a member of the Church of England. Among these 200 Immigrants were Isaac Hutto and his wife Catherine Maria, and several children. They received a tract of land, fifty acres for each member of the family. The spelling of the name varied: Hotto, Hottow, Huttow, Huttaw, and Hutto. All families, however, trace to Isaac Hutto. The name Catherine Maria sounds like a Latin name, but in this case it is French.

In 1906 I met a man in Laredo, Texas, Quarrier, who claimed to be of the Protestant (Huguenot) lineage that settled in S. C. When I told him my name, he stated immediately that it was French in origin. I told him that my father said the name was of Dutch Origin he replied emphatically, "No, thats French, I have a boy named Hutto." In the month of June 1950 I met a "Bostonian Lady", who said she had lived quite a while in Paris France, and that "Hutto Name" was common in that city. The student of Hutto Tradition can take these statements for what they are worth.

Switzerland was the home of the great Protestant Reformers, Zuinglius & Calvin. They lived in the day of severe Catholic persecution and became refuge for persecuted Protestants. These bold mountaineers of Switzerland defied the authority of Austria and one by one added small districts to the country. The Evangelical Reform Church and the Catholic Church predominate in Switzerland today. They rate in number about 60 to 40 in favor of the Protestants.

Approximately 71% of the people of Switzerland speak German, 22% speak French, 5% speak Italian and the rest speak Romansch. It is easy to conclude that the Germans predominated in the colony. According to Jasper Hutto's letter, early Huttos married Zeiglers, Hartzogs, and Zorns. This links them with Anna Zorn, my father's grandmother. His letter indicated that the settlers were called Switzers, Salsburgers, and Palatines. The followers of the Duke of Orangeburg were sometimes called Palatines. The name had different significations. Considering the poor means of transportation and communications of that day it is difficult to conclude that the people of Germany and Switzerland could have united their efforts in a colonization scheme in America. This causes me to believe that the 200 Immigrants that settled in Orangeburg, S. C. in 1735 were from Switzerland. This is another point for study.

According to Jasper Hutto's findings (and they should be accurate, as he holds three college and university degrees, one in journalism), one Henry Hutto was a "Petty Officer" in the Revolutionary War and a record was found wherein he was paid for his services as a soldier. The substantiation of that fact would entitle the Hutto females to become members of the Daughters of the American Revolution. According to my father's and Uncle Henry's statements (I heard them make), Grandmother Anna Zorn Hutto was about 90 years old when she died in 1832. Taking that date as a basis, she was born about seven years after the arrival of the colonists in America. Her husband, Henry Hutto, was about her age. It is easy for me to conclude therefore, that the Henry Hutto who was a "Petty Officer" in Washington's Army was my great-grandfather, Henry Hutto married Anna Zorn.

Jasper's letter also states that Huttos are scattered all over S. C., especially in the south. Some telephone directories have whole pages devoted to "Hutto Listings". Among them are laborers, farmers, doctors lawyers, teachers, preachers, bank officials and etc. He states that in some localities the name is pronounced Hutt-o and in others Hut-to, with emphasis on the last syllable. Besides my family, I have met six other Hutto families in Texas. All pronounce the name Hut-to. I have been told that some people around Hutto, Texas pronounce the name Hutt-o. When I passed through the town in 1903, the porter called it "Huddo." Uncle Henry born in 1820 received from his father, born in 1793, the pronunciation of Hut-to. Another observation, "if" my brother Webster, lives to be 81 he will see the 140th anniversary of our father's birth and will be the "few" in America who can say, "My great-grandfather fought in George Washington's Army." Two outstanding characteristics of our family are: honesty and home ownership. The Lord forbid that we destroy the good name! John R. Hutto, July 4th, 1950. (Note, he lived for many years in Abilene, Texas. wdp)

NOTE

This entire document was retyped from the most original copy located to date. It was sent to me by Mrs. Buryl (Jean) Hutto of Arlington, Texas who had gotten it from Joseph Howard Hutto of Arlington. I visited with C. Allen "Toppy" Hutto of Richardson, (now deceased), a cousin of Joseph Howard's and he has an identical "Original" (much yellowed with time) copy of this same one given to him by his cousin, Nelson A. Hutto, son of John Renfro Hutto who wrote it. I have been in contact with Nelson's daughter, Emily (Hutto) Frederick and she has promised to send me the records she has that were her fathers. In later copies of this document, someone had changed, in para. 11, the name of the brother George to Henry. Since Allen is the person dictating this family record, his father was Jacob Hutto and Jacob's father was Henry Hutto who fought in the American Revolution. The statement made is that Allen's father, Jacob, called these two brothers Uncle; therefore they were brothers of his father Henry and their names were George and Dave.

I believe this document to be a vital record to the families of many Huttos in S.C., Ala., Ga, Miss., La., Ark. and Tx. as it ties them together into one extensive family. The 55 page "OUTLINE" and 14 pages of Indexes that I have assembled is based largely on this document. The inclusion of George and Dave was made on this information. Due to his reported age, George Hutto Sr., b.ca.1774 could hardly be a brother of Henry Hutto of this Family who was born 25 Dec 1752. Somewhere we all are descendants of these people and it is hoped that this start may spur others to help sort it all out.

We note in this document, John R. Hutto's reference to a letter from Jasper C. Hutto of Orangeburg, S.C. dated Oct. 12, 1938. I have not been able to locate Jasper in any of the records available to me and feel that he probably did some research on the Hutto family that could shed some light on some of the dangling lines.

In Edgar Hutto's book, ISAAC (OTTO) HUTTO, he lists John R. Hutto of Abilene, Texas in his acknowledgements.

The Huttos emigrated from Germany in 1735. Isaac Hutto, Sr., his wife Maria, and four of their children, came to Charleston on the ship, "Oliver", nine weeks out of Rotterdam on the First Transport. The ship carried about 200 Palatines. The immigrants had to sell their service as indentured servants to pay passage. Huttos could have been spelled "Hottow" or "Heuter". They were some of the Georgia Salzburgers. Isaac Hottow (Hutto) died 8-15-1752 at age 57, and was buried 8-17 on his plantation. This was taken from the Geissandanner Parish Register. Geissandanner was pastor of the German congregation. Isaac left a wife and seven children, four of whom were married.

Charles Hottow (Hutto) and wife, Ann, had at least four children baptized by Geissandanner. One child, Sussanah, b. 1751, d. 1752, was buried in the same grave as her grandfather.

Charles inherited 350 acres of land from his father. In 1755, he sold the land to his three younger brothers for 5 shillings. They sold the plantation to George McMichael in 1770. Charles received a land grant in Four Holes Swamp area in 1762 and the family is believed to have centered there and in the Providence area of Orangeburg Co., S. C.

Dear Mrs. Hutto,

Thank you for the nice letter and the news of all of your children. We all were interested in hearing about them. We often think of the happy days when we were neighbors at Trenton.

I have copied what you sent me and see if I copied it correctly. Make any corrections and return one of the blanks to me. Fill in any spaces.

I plan to begin the Hutto work for the lady in Mattiesburg, Miss. sometime in December. I will make a complete carbon and send it to you. Her family of Hutto went from Orangeburg & Barnwell counties to Alabama many years before the War between the States. She is having me to try to look them up for her in S.C. files. It will be hard for old Sherman burned all the Orangeburg records.

A lady in Barnwell sent me her line from old Henry Hutto, the soldier in the Revolution. She joined the DAR on him. Keep that carbon on old Henry Hutto.

There is an old man, Jabez B. Hutto over 90 years old living in Blackville, S.C. Is he kin to Mr. Jack? Old Mr. Jabez Hutto is a descendent of this old Man Henry Hutto being the son of RUFUS HUTTO #3 on the Mrs. Diamond paper enclosed. Mrs. Diamond is going to send me the list of children of Rufus, #3, Charles #4 and William #5.

It is hard to get data unless a person can visit in person and talk. It was a John Hutto who went to Alabama that the lady in Mattiesburg, Miss wants me to trace for her but he was too young to have been the John, son of Henry #6.

With all good wishes to you and your family, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

Jim,

This is a Stabler researcher that I noticed on the LIST, and thought I would forward it to you.

I am origionally from Swansea, SC. I currently work for General Motors in Michigan and don't get back to SC enough to do much research. It is by mail (not much) and a day or two when I get to SC on vacation. The names I an trying to trace include:

STABLER

I can document my line back to George Lewis Stabler (b. abt 1790, d. 23 Mar 1859). His wife was Mary but I do not have her maiden name. I have not been able to document George Lewis Stabler's parents. It is likely that his father was a son of Gottlieb Stabler, the origional Stabler immigrant in SC. Gottlieb's son, John George Stabler is indicated as my ancestor by some poorly documented records, but I am still digging for proof. If I can link back to Gottlieb Stabler, I will be tied to the ZIEGLER family

SAYLOR

I have reasonable good records on the Saylor's back to Jacob Saylor I (b. abt 1730, d. aft 1779) who immigrated from Weidenstentturn, Germany via Switzerland in 1747. Would like additional information on this family.
Most of the research was done by someone else.

CRIM, JUMPER

Greatgrandmother Stabler was Rachel Crim. Her parents were David Crim (b. about 1806) and Marjorie Jumper (b. abt 1820). I have not been able to trace either of these family lines yet.

WISE, FERTICK

My gg-grandfather, Godfrey Vastine Stabler married Mary Margret Wise (b. 29 Sep 1833, d. 29 Jan 1900). Her parents were John Wise (b abt 1800) and Mary Fertick (b. abt 1810). Both family lines need work.

All of these names are in the early Orangeburg records. I am also tracing my mother's line which includes the following, some from the Northern part of the Orangeburg district, now Lexington County:

ALTMAN/AULTMAN, BUSBY

I am back to Solomon Altman (b. abt 1783, d. aft 1850) and his wife Elizabeth Busby Gantt (b. abt 1790, d. aft 1850). Possible son of John Altman but more research needed. No work on the Busby line.

RISTER, HAUGABUCK

Christian Rister (b. abt 1775, d. aft 1850) and his wife Sarah Haugabook (or other spelling) (b. abt 1782, d. aft 1850) are in my mother's line and I need more information in this area. Limited Rister information.

KING

Rachel E. King (b. abt 1831, d. Dec 1892) m. John Adam Rister (son of Christen Rister). Her parents have not been identified.

I am searching for information on my father's family and hope that you may be able to help--my father, Guy Thurston Hutto, July 7, 1923-March 13, 1985) was born around Bamberg or Denmark most probably. His mother Mary Hutto lived from Dec 18, 1885-Dec 28, 1934. She was probably not married. She lived with her mother--Ann Rebecca Hutto, 1845-1925, and several of her adult siblings. Both Mary and Ann Rebecca are buried at Two Mile Swamp Baptst Church near Orangeburg. There seem to be no church records available due to a fire since they were buried there. Several of the Hutto families around Bamberg or Orangeburg are my cousins but they know little of our ancestry. We have no other info on the Hutto line of our family beyond these two women and would be most excited to make a connection into the research that we have recently received that was written by A. Dickson Hutto (1923-1981). -

Thank you for any help you may be able to give us.-

I am origionally from Swansea, SC. I currently work for General Motors in Michigan and don't get back to SC enough to do much research. It is by mail (not much) and a day or two when I get to SC on vacation. The names I an trying to trace include:

STABLER

I can document my line back to George Lewis Stabler (b. abt 1790, d. 23 Mar 1859). His wife was Mary but I do not have her maiden name. I have not been able to document George Lewis Stabler's parents. It is likely that his father was a son of Gottlieb Stabler, the origional Stabler immigrant in SC. Gottlieb's son, John George Stabler is indicated as my ancestor by some poorly documented records, but I am still digging for proof. If I can link back to Gottlieb Stabler, I will be tied to the ZIEGLER family by his wife, Anna Barbara Ziegler.

SAYLOR

I have reasonable good records on the Saylors back to Jacob Saylor I (b. abt 1730, d. aft 1779) who immigrated from Weidenstentturn, Germany via Switzerland in 1747. Would like additional information on this family. Most of the research was done by someone else.

CRIM, JUMPER

Greatgrandmother Stabler was Rachel Crim. Her parents were David Crim (b. about 1806) and Marjorie Jumper (b. abt 1820). I have not been able to trace either of these family lines yet.

WISE, FERTICK

My gg-grandfather, Godfrey Vastine Stabler married Mary Margret Wise (b. 29 Sep 1833, d. 29 Jan 1900). Her parents were John Wise (b abt 1800) and Mary Fertick (b. abt 1810). Both family lines need work.

All of these names are in the early Orangeburg records. I am also tracing my mother's line which includes the following, some from the Northern part of the Orangeburg district, now Lexington County:

ALTMAN/AULTMAN, BUSBY

I am back to Solomon Altman (b. abt 1783, d. aft 1850)) and his wife Elizabeth Busby Gantt (b. abt 1790, d. aft 1850). Possible son of John Altman but more research needed. No work on the Busby line.

RISTER, HAUGABUCK

Christian Rister (b. abt 1775, d. aft 1850) and his wife Sarah Haugabook (or other spelling) (b. abt 1782, d. aft 1850) are in my mother's line and I need more information in this area. Limited Rister information.

KING

Rachel E. King (b. abt 1831, d. Dec 1892) m. John Adam Rister (son of Christen Rister). Her parents have not been identified.

Other SC families being traced, but probably not linked to Orangeburg, are listed below.

One definition of the word Palatinate, is a land of palaces. Palatinate the name of two German states united before 1623. They were called Upper and Lower Palatinate, the Upper being what is the kingdom of Bavaria, and the Lower lying on both sides of the Rhine and bounded by Mainz, Treves, Lorraine, Alsace, Baden, and Wurttemberg. The capital was Heidelberg. The Rhenish Palatinate was established as an hereditary possession, as early as the eleventh century and in 1216 it was granted to the Duke of Bavaria, and this and the Bavarian territory were held by the Bavarians house. In 1559 the electoral vote passed to Frederick III, afterwards to Frederick V, and finally to his son. In 1801 France took possession of the western part and gave the eastern to Bavaria, Nassau, Hesses, Darmstadt. The left bank was restored to Germany in 1815, the larger part going to Bavaria, the rest being divided among other provinces.

SOBERNHEIM, GERMANY

Sobernheim is in South Germany, 5500 inhabitants, 152 meters above sea level. With a Felkebad and climatic health resort situated to the south of the Soon forest on the Nahe river, a small old city and one of the most significant health resorts. The place of operation of the nature-cure doctor Pastor Felke who for decades worked in Sobernheim and here found his last resting place. Domicile of the Felkebund (the Felke-union or club). In the city are the following places of interest. The Felke Memorial, Evangelical (Lutheran) Church, a Gothic structure of the 14th century. Maltesian chapel and chapel of the Knights of St. John. medieval houses, ruins of the monastery of Disibodenberg (3 kilometers away.)

HUTTO LAND MARKS

On a map of a survey made by B. Busby in 1820 in Orangeburg District. In the western part of the district near the present Orangeburg and Aiken county lines. Mr. Busby identifies the Hutto Tavern, as being located on the Ninety Six road. In our research we have not been able to find out which one of the Hutto family owned and operated this Tavern.

In the eastern part of Orangeburg District near the line of Orangeburg and Colleton county lines Mr. Busby identifies another land mark. David Hutto's place. This is a point on highway No. 176 about two miles west of Wells Cross Roads, in what is generally known as the Providence community, near Providence Methodist Church. This particular area comprises some of the choicest farm land in Orangeburg County. The descendants of David Hutto are still in possession of the original farm and have added considerable acreage to their holdings of this rich farm land. David Hutto's descendants are a very closely knit clan. They are industrious, progressive and are among the most. In Orangeburg Sunday, March 15, year not shown, Samuel Varndore son of Leonard and Sarah Hutto Varndore born Feb. 15, 1754, Thomas Varndore, son of Leonard and Sarah Hutto Varndore, born March 10, 1753.

Anna Hutto, married Peter Griffith, May 25, 1742, Witnesses Peter Hoeger and Jacob Kuhner. Thomas, son of Anna Hutto and Peter Griffith. No other information shown. Ann Margaret, daughter of Peter and Anna Hutto Griffith born Oct. 14, 1751. William, son of Peter and Anna Hutto Griffith, born Oct. 2, 1752. She died the day before being Sept. 26, after two days illness, aged 3 years and about 9 months.

no date shown. This diary was discontinued after 1761 at death of Rev. John Gissendanner. In the research that I have made in Germany, I have not as yet been able to find the birth-place of Isaac Otto and his wife. Our researcher is of the opinion that he came from the Otto clan in Staudernheim and Sobernheim in the Palatinate. We are of the opinion that the Hutto family which is to be found in many parts of the United States are descendants of Isaac Otto and his wife Maria Catherina who settled on the Pon Pon (Edisto) river near Orangeburg in the period of 1735-37. In every case in our research of the family in the various parts of the country we are told that they were originally from either Orangeburg or Barnwell counties in South Carolina. Barnwell county is a part of the original Orangeburg District.

HUTTO

The name was originally Otto in the German as recorded in Rev. Gissendanner's diary. In 1755 we find where a land transfer was made and the name was written Hutto. This was the first time it was so spelled and in most cases since that time it has been the accepted or correct way of spelling the name Hutto.

LOCATION OF ISAAC HUTTO'S PLANTATION

In the Royal grant of 350 acres land and one lot No. 282 in the town of Orangeburg on Fenwick street dated March first 1743. The plat shows that this land was on the north-east side of the Pon Pon (Edisto) river. On the south-west adjacent to the Pon Pon River. It also adjoined land which had been layed out for granted to John Rote (Rowe) Casper Miller and Ludwick Linder. On February first 1771 Isaac, Jacob, and Benjamin Hutto executed an Instrument in writing leasing the 350 acres of land to George McMichael. This document was signed by Isaac and Ann Hutto, also Benjamin and Susanna Hutto and Jacob Hutto. This would indicate that Benjamin Hutto was a bachelor at that time. It would also indicate that this land had passed down from the original grantor Isaac Otto to his grand-sons. My investigation would indicate that this property is located on the south-east side of the city of Orangeburg and extends from the Edisto river on the south-west side to the north-east side across the Southern Railway to U. S. Highway No. 21 and the present Orangeburg airport is located on a part of this property. I have already shown that this property was leased to one George McMichael in 1771. I had occasion in 1920 to visit a Mister McMichael on his farm and at the time of my visit he was cultivating land which I

River in Germany arrived in Charleston by boat and then way of eighty miles to a site on the Pon Pon (Edisto) River near the present city of Orangeburg. This was to be the home in Carolina. There were three contingents of these and Switzer's who settled on the Pon Pon (Edisto) River in Orangeburg. The first contingent arrived at Charleston on an English ship. Oliver with Samuel Merchant as Master, in 1735. All of these emigrants except forty five dis-embarked at Charleston. This ship continued on to Philadelphia and quitted there on August 26, 1735. Second contingent arrived in 1736 and the third in 1737. It is not certain which contingent Otto and his family arrived with. Isaac Otto, did not sit with his hands folded. He mp doubt was a very industrious man. On March first 1743 King George the second of England granted him a Royal Grant of 350 acres of land on the Pon Pon (Edisto) River and one lot No. 282 of a half acre situated on Fenwick Street in Orangeburg. Isaac Otto, took an interest in the affairs of the community and the local Lutheran Church. Rev. John Ul. Gissendanner mentioned his name on several occasions in his diary. Rev. Gissendanner came from Switzerland with the third contingent in 1737 and served as the first paator of the local Lutheran Church. Isaac Otto lived on his plantation near Orangeburg. some 15, 16 or 17 years after he arrived from Germany. An account of his death is recorded by the Rev. John Gissendanner.

ISAAC "OTTO" HUTTO

"On Monday August 17th 1752, was buried the body of Isaac Otto, a settler in this Township for several years past who died suddenly on Saturday August 15th on the edge of the Path as he was going home and was found and taken up dead between his home and the town of Orangeburg. No mark of any fall or violence done him could be seen on his body. He left a wife and seven children. four of which are married. He was aged 57 years and buried at his own plantation. At the same time and place, and into the same grave was entered the Grandchild of the late Isaac Otto, named Susannah, daughter of Charles and Ann Otto, who died on Monday morning after a fortnights illness, aged one year."

Isaac Otto's widow Maria Catherine married Henry Mell, Tuesday April 24, 1753. It is stated that Isaac Otto's was 57 at time of his death. This being the case he would have been born in 1697. It is also stated that he had seven children and four had married at the time of death on August 17, 1752. We find where Anna married Peter Griffith on May 25, 1742. Sarah married Leonard Varnedore, no date shown. Charles married Ann Tshudy, no date shown. Peter married Margaret Barbara Shuler, delay of one or two weeks, where the ships waited, either to be passed through the customhouse or waiting for favorable winds. The third stage of the journey, or the ocean voyage proper, was marked with much suffering and hardships. The passengers were packed closely like herring. The Reverend Mittleberger describes the voyage on the ship that he came over on from England to Philadelphia, without proper food, water, and medicines. Many were soon subjected to all sorts of diseases, such as dysentery, scurvy, typhoid and smallpox. The children were the first to be attacked and died in large numbers. Reverend Mittleberger reported the death of thirty two children on his ship. He gives an example of heavy gale on this particular day. A woman was giving birth and could not under the circumstances of the storm, was pushed through the porthole and dropped into the sea, because she was far in the rear of the ship and could not be brought forward. The terrors of disease, brought about to a great extent by poor food and lack of good drinking water, were much aggravated by frequent storms through which the ship and passengers had to go through. The misery reached the climax when a gale would rage for two or three days and nights and every one on board ship expected it to go to the bottom with all human beings on board. In such a crisis the people would cry and pray most piteously, when in such a gale, the sea raging and surging the waves would rise like a mountain one above the other and often tumble over the ship. As the ship was constantly tossed from side to side by the storm and waves. The people could neither walk, sit, or lie. They were so closely packed in their berths and with the violent wind waves, the sick and well were tumbled over each other. Under the conditions that they had to endure and the hardships that they went through, it is amazing how the large number of these early emigrants from Europe lived to reach the American shores.

OTTO

The name Otto in Germany, is a familiar and prominent one. The following were emperors and German Kings. Otto I or Otto the Great 912-73. Otto II, 955-63. Otto III 980-1002, Otto IV 1132-1218. Otto I 1848-1916 King of Bavaria (1886-1913) Otto I First King of the Hellenes (1832-62)/ Also Nikolaus August Otto. German engineer. He was co-inventor 1367 of an internal combustion engine and devised (1876) four-stroke Otto cycle widely adopted for motors.

settlers clustered together near the banks Edisto river, built houses near each other and formed a small village. The present city of Orangeburg is located near the spot where the original German and Swiss village stood. In this village the first Lutheran church in the Carolinas was built. The church building was built of clay and wood and was about 30 feet high and 20 feet wide.

The Rev. John Ulrich Gissendanner who came with the first installment of German and Swiss settlers in 1737, came from Switzerland and was the first pastor of this Lutheran church in the Carolinas. There is on record in Switzerland a letter that the Rev. Gissendanner wrote to some of his friends shortly after his arrival in Orangeburg. It is recorded that the Rev. Gissendanner on November 15, 1737 married his housekeeper who had made the journey over on the ship with him from Switzerland. Some half mile from the center of the city of Orangeburg towards the Edisto river, is a cemetery where many of these early German and Swiss settlers are buried. No doubt the remains of the Rev. John Ulrich Gissendanner, the first Lutheran pastor in the Carolina is buried. We are greatly indebted to the Rev. John Ulrich Gissendanner and his successor, a nephew, the Rev. John Gissendanner for the information they left to posterity in the diary they kept in German starting in 1737 through 1761 with several breaks. They recorded the marriages, births, and deaths of these German and Switzers.

JOURNEY FROM THE PALATINATE TO CAROLINA

The journey to Carolina was to the port of Charleston, fell in three parts. The first part, and by no means the easiest, was the journey down the Rhine river to Rotterdam or some other port in Holland. This journey lasts from the beginning of May to the end of October, fully half a year, amid such hardships as no one is able to describe adequately, misery. In this particular situation the Rhine boats from Heilbronn to Holland had to pass by 26 custom houses, at all of which the ships are examined, which was done when it suited the convenience of the customhouse officials. In the meantime the ships with the passengers were detained so long that the passenger had to spend much of their money between Heilbronn and the Holland port. The trip down the Rhine lasted from four, five and even six weeks. When the ships arrived at a Holland port, they detained there also for five or six weeks. Because things were very dear there, the poor people had to spend much of what they had during this long wait. The second stage of the journey was from Rotterdam to one of the English ports. Cowes and the Isle of Wight were the favorite stopping off places in England. In England there was another

ORANGEBURG

In 1730, by royal authority eleven townships were laid off in square plats on side of rivers in South Carolina, Each contained 20,000 acres. They were designed to encourage settlement and the plan that each township would eventually become a Parish. The township that was first called Edisto, after it's settlement by German and Swiss in 1735, was changed to Orangeburg. Orangeburg was names for William the Prince of Orange, who was the son-in-law of King George II of England. In 1763 an act was passed dividing the Provience of South Carolina into seven judicial districts, or precincts. The third of these districts was called Orangeburg.

ORANGEBURG SETTLED BY GERMAN AND SWISS

The German and Swiss settlers did not arrive at Orangeburg at the same time. The ship that brought the first settlers made it's way into the Charleston harbor Sunday July 26, 1735. Second group of settlers arrived a year later, and it was not until 1737, that the third group came. With this third group came the Rev. Ulrich Gissendanner, from Switzerland, who became the first pastor of the first Luthern church in Orangeburg and the Carolinas. It is said that the Germans came from the lower Palatinate, or the Rhine and the switzers came from the cantons of Bern, Zurick and the Grisons. After reaching Charleston by boat these settlers made their way from Charleston to their future homes at Orangeburg, a distance of eighty miles. It is recorded that some of these emigrants from the Palatinate and Switzerland being very poor, they were obliged to sell themselves and their children for their passage which was six Pistoles in gold per head within a fortnight of their arrival, or else to pay one Pistole more to be carried on to Philadelphia. It is also said that the ships brought these settlers over to Carolina Province, returned with a load of Carolina rice. Like most of these early German and Swiss of America, these colonist came to Carolina not as gentlemen, or traders, but as tillers of the soil with honest intentions to earn their bread by the sweat of their brow. These settlers were thrifty and frugal. They soon secured a compency and independence for themselves and their children, tiling the fertile soil in and around Orangeburg. The first

From the information obtained up to this point indicates that descend from Isaac Hutto, Jr. and likely from his son who was either Isaac Hutto or Gideon Hutto...see 14. Instead of you going over to Bartow, Fla. to just check the 1830 census of Orangeburg Co. for all Huttos and other related families, I made a check of them here.

b There were many other Huttos, but I wanted you to see the above because I feel sure that more than likely Isaac Hutto is the father of Ann Mariah. Note Sarah Hutto, is likely the Sarah Hutto that was 60 years old in 1850. In 1830 would be 40/

Miscellaneous

This miscellaneous Hutto data is included in this book as some of the originals who came to this country.

Taken from "History of Orangeburg County," by A. S. Salley, Secretary, South Carolina Historical Commission, Columbia, S. C.

For some years previous to 1735, John Peter Purry, a Swiss gentleman, had been trying to establish Swiss Colonies in South Carolina. He settled one on the Savannah River and named it Purrysburg.

He gave such a glowing account of the country in a pamphlet (see Carroll's Historical Collection of S. Car., Vol. 11) which he distributed throughout Switzerland, Holland, North Germany and the Provinces of the Rhine that a great many settlers were induced to come to America.

On July 13, 1735, two hundred and fifth German Swiss arrived from Rotterdam, the usual Port for German and Swiss migration. The first shipload of Orangeburg Township arrived in Charlestown in July, 1735 and went immediately to the township of the Edisto river, thereafter called Orangeburg. In 1736, a second installment of settlers arrived. In 1737, a third came. With them came a Lutheran Minister, Re. John Ulrick Giessendanner, later ordained in the Episcopal church and given a church in Orangeburg District. He began in the fall of 1737 the church register. The following record was taken from it.

HUTTO, HENRY 1753-1817 BARNWELL CO., S. C.

Henry Hutto, the Revolutionary ancestor of a number of Wiregrass Georgians, was a life-long resident of South Carolina. He was born in Orangeburg District, S. C., May 26, 1753, a son of Charles and Ann Hutto, members of the Dutch-German colony of Orangeburg District; Isaac Hutto, the grandfather of the subject, having been born in Germany in 1695, and emigrating to South Carolina about 1735. In 1786, Winton County was formed out of Orangeburg, and Henry Hutto became a resident of the new county, having been cut into it. Winton County two years later was re-named Barnwell District (or County); the section which Henry Hutto lived in is now Bamberg County.

Henry Hutto married Miss Ann Zorn about 1780, daughter of Henry Zorn, R.S., of Barnwell County. To Henry and Ann were born ten children (order of birth not known except that Rebecca was the youngest):

Henry Hutto died testate in Barnwell District, in 1817. His will datd Aug. 27, 1817, was probated Oct. 24, 1817. His wife and son, William, were named executors. The wife was given the estate until her death. She died 1831, and the estate was then sold and divided into ten parts. The estate owned sixteen slaves in 1831. The inventory of the estate in January, 1818, totaled $8956.75.

Mrs. Ann Hutto, mother of Henry Hutto, the subject, was a widow during the Revolutionary War, and furnished supplies to the Revolutionary cause on several occasions. Mrs. Lydia Kirkland Moseley became the first descendant to be admitted into the D.A.R. on the patriotic service of Mrs. Ann Hutto; she was admitted Oct. 24, 1951, National No. 402731; she is a member of John Floyd Chapter, D.A.R., Homerville, Ga.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kirkland Heath, sister of Mrs. Moseley, became the first descendant of Henry Hutto, R.S., to be admitted as a member of the D.A.R., on his service. She was admitted Oct. 24, 1951; National No. 402731, member of John Floyd Chapter, aforesaid. Mrs. Heath and Mrs. Moseley are great-granddaughters of James Touchston and his wife Rebecca Hutto Touchston.

Mrs. Sarah Delk Hutto, widow of Isaac (son of Henry and Ann), later married William Touchton, and moved to Lowndes County, later to Clinch. Rev. Isaac D. Hutto, and Nancy who married William Hughes (q.v.), were the children of said Isaac and Sarah, and lived in Clinch County.

HUTTO RECORDS

Our Hutto line has been a very difficult one to research as every Hutto family uses the same given names, in every generation.

Some years ago I engaged a genealogist in South Carolina to try and untangle our line from among the other families. His findings were the same as mine; He could not be sure without further research which was ours. We do know that Levi Columbus Gleaton, son of Thomas Gleaton, Sr., son of Joseph Isaac Gleaton the immigrant, did marry Ann Maria Hutto, daughter of Isaac and Sarah Hutto, all born in South Carolina. Later Levi and Ann Marish moved to Mississippi and Alabama on their way to Arkansas. The 1850 U. S. Census, Alabama gives Sarah Hutto age 50, born S. C., in the home of Levi C. Gleaton and his wife Ann Mariah Hutto Gleaton, both born in S. C.

The family Bible of Levi Columbus Gleaton, states "Levi Gleaton son of Thomas Gleaton and Hiziah, his wife was born January 26th in the year of our Lord and Dominion 1803". "Ann M. Hutto daughter of Isaac Hutto and Sarah his wife was born December 28th, in the year of our Lord and Dominion 1805." The old Bible being in the possession of Jim Naum, Fairfax, Alabama (1975). (Other data on children, on another page of this book) a copy of the old Bible record is on another page of this book.

HUTTO COAT OF ARMS

This is a description of the Hutto Coat of Arms as was given to Mrs. Florrie Hughes by a Mrs. Julia Langley of Barnwell Co. S. C.

Hutto Arms - Burke Heraldry.

This is an ancient arms granted before the 17th century.
(It has no motto)

The ermine denotes a connection with Nobility. The 3 bars were granted for Military service. The cross granted only to those who had served in the Crusades to regain the Holy Land. The whattle's head indicates they had Maritime interest or loved the sea. The mural coronet also shows a connection with nobility. The 3 pellets on the crown indicates wealth and affluance. Ermine, (silver with black spots) a connection with nobility. Red - burning with desire to fight for God and country. Or (gold) stainless honor.

Hutto arms granted about 1600. Originally a continental name, emigrated to Ireland and from there to other lands.

Compiled for :
Mrs. G.A. Chancellor
Mrs. Jack Hutto
Mrs. Marcus Diamond.

This data on the Family of Hutto, has been compiled from what is to be found on the name in the South Carolina Archives in Columbia, plus some data sent to me by the clients. In order to clear the lineage, I will need further data from the clients, plus some work in county court houses, Bible records and graveyard inscriptions.

- 1 The name has always been spelled as HUTTO by the family, however in the records made and indiced by the clerks, the name is also spelled by them as Houtto, Hotto, Howtoe, Hottow, Huttow, Utto, Houteau, Hotteau and other variations....I have also seen the name spelled as Otto.
- 2 Due to the fact that Sherman passed thru Orangeburg and Lexington and burned the records, it will be hard to prove many points in the history of the Hutto Family from county records.....The Hutto Family all lived in Orangeburg District from the time they arrived from Switzerland until the first Census taken in 1790....Hence it is a calamity that the Orangeburg records were burned.
- 4 ISAAC HUTTO was the first of the name to appear in South Carolina. He and his wife and seven children came from Switzerland sometime before 1743, which was 205 years ago...from what part of Switzerland he came from I have been unable to determine. He likely came from the French speaking Cantons...I have noted on old land plats in the Historical Commission that an Isaac Houtteau shows as an adjoining land owner...This spelling indicates that the Family was from the French Cantons of Switzerland.
- 5 All the Hutto people of S.C. descend from this Isaac Hutto #4..When each lineage is carried back, they all will point to this Isaac Hutto as the common ancestor of all the members of the Hutto Family from S.C.
- 6 ISAAC HUTTO, received from the King of England, the 1st day of March 1743, a grant for 350a of land located on the Pon Pon River (Now called the Edisto) and for a half acre lot of land in the town of Orangeburg....I will now take items from Salley's History of Orangeburg County for more data on Isaac Hutto and mainly from the Church Register of the Episcopal Church of the Redeemer of Orangeburg, for the Hutto Family were members of that Church..some of the old church records are still extant.
- 9 Admitted to Holy Communion 14 Dec. 1746, Benedict Kollers, the lawful son of Benedict Sr. & Magdalena Kollers.../wit. Isaac Hutto, Bertholomew Spring and his wife, Margaritha Spring...This is the first time in the Episcopal Church record that the name of ISAAC HUTTO is mentioned, since he acted as the Godfather for this Benedict Kollers Jr., it is likely that he was a near relative.
- 10 ISAAC HUTTO was buried on Monday, August 17th, 1752..I quote the entire account of his burial and death as taken from the Church Register. "On Monday August 17th, was buried the Body of Isaac Hottow, a Settler in this Township for several years past, who died suddenly on Saturday August 15th (1752) on the edge of the Path as he was going home and was found and taken up dead between his Home and the Town of Orangeburgh, no mark of any Fall or violence done him could be seen on his Body. He left a wife and 7 children, four of which are married. He was aged 57 years and buried at his own Plantation"...end of quote and capitals used & spellings

Pascagoula Public Library

Hutto #1 Family

- 11 Continued as the second part of the entry on the burial of Isaac Hutto, and I quote..."At the Same Time and Place, and into the same Grave was entered the Grand child of the said Isaac Hottow, named Susannah Daughter of Charles and Ann Hottow, who died on Monday August 17th in the morning after a Fortnights Illness, aged one year.
 - 12 The next burial entry..."On Wednesday Sept. 27th was buried at the Plantation of the late Isaac Hottow de'ced the Body of Catherine Daughter of Peter and Ann Griffice of this Township. She died the day before being Sept. 26th after two days Illness aged 3 years and about 9 months".
 - 13 The widow of Isaac Hutto did not remain a widow for we find this entry..."On Tuesday April 24th (1753) Married by Banns, Henry Mell to Mary Catharina, widow of Isaac Huttow, late of Orangeburgh Township, deceased"....We see that the widow waited a bit over 8 months before she married a second time to Henry Mell.
 - 14 The settlers in those early days needed wives...I checked on Henry Mell and noted that his wife had died some months before...I also checked Mell data to see if Mrs. Mary Catharina Hutto Mell, had left a will...I found no will for her, altho it may be in Charleston files for up to 1785 Charleston was the only county seat of S.C. and all wills, deeds, administrations and other records had to be recorded in Charleston.
 - 15 Married 25th of May 1742 Peter Griffous (Griffith) to Anna Huttow, Anne Hutto was the eldest daughter of Isaac Hutto #4. Marriage #38
 - 16 Leonhard Varnedow (Leonard Varnedoe) was married to Sirrah Hottow. The date is not legible...Sarah Hutto was a daughter of Isaac Hutto #4.
 - 17 PETER HOTTOW was married to Margaret Barbara Shuler and the date is missing from the records...Peter Hutto was son of Isaac Hutto #4.
 - 18 CHARLES HUTTON was married to Ann Tshudy & date is missing...Charles Hutto was a son of Isaac Hutto #4. Marriage #40
- These four marriages were between 1742 and 1750Sarah Hutto marriage was numbered 39 and Charles #40..Peter #43..It seems from the Church entries that Sarah and Anne may have married the same day...Note #10 which states that 4 children were already married when Isaac died... These four are the ones.
- 19 The complete list of the SEVEN Children of Isaac Hutto Sr. and his wife, Mary Catharina Hutto were : (See #s 4 thru 18)

Anne Hutto	Sarah Hutto
Peter Hutto	Charles Hutto
Isaac Hutto Jr.	Jacob Hutto

The name of the seventh child, I was not able to discover...later on, I will make a conjecture as to the name of the 7th child....
 - 20 ANNE HUTTON married Peter Griffith 25 May 1742 and they had these infant children baptized in the Episcopal Church at Orangeburg.

These entries show ANNE HUTTO #30 & her husband, Peter Griffith #20 and also her mother, Mary Catharina Hutto Mell. #19....Likely these families for whom they stood as Godparents were related to them...altho some were on the Griffith side....Note the Platt in #30 & #25...I had wondered if Barbara Platt was the 7th child of Isaac Hutto #19.

March 1st 1747 was baptized in the home of Mr. Thomas Fort, John Warnedoe, the son of Leonard and Sarah Warnedoe...Godparents were John ~~xxxx~~ Goss, Mrs. Lamons and since the child was very ill, for want of another Godmother, the mother of the child stood as Godmother. - 37 Baptized Anna Tshudy b. 17 Feb. 1760, the daughter of Jacob & Dorothy Tshudy ..Godparents were Simon Yonn, Margaret w.of Jacob Hutto and Anna w.of Charles Hutto.

It is stated that Jacob and Charles Hutto married sisters..I found no proof of this BUT the indications in #37 point to the fact that both Margaret w.of Jacob Hutto and Anna w.of Charles Hutto were Tshudys and sisters....Aunt or near relatives were always Godparents save sometimes a special friend acted...However among the Swiss and Germans of Orangeburg close blood kin and even grandparents always acted as sponsors so states Mr. A.S. Salley, who is an authority on Orangeburg history.

*I am a bit confused as to who the Godfather, Jacob Hutto was unless the father acted which was never permitted unless of necessity as in #31a.
Baptized on Easter Sunday, April 10th.

CORRECTION to #39...I am in doubt whether this Jacob was the son of Isaac Sr. #19..Unless he had two wives.

- 40 The Communion List for Easter Sunday 1753 NO Whitsunday 1753.
Anna Catharina Mell Isaac Hutto Mary Tshudy
Margaret w.of Jacob Hutto Agnes Huber (Hoover) Jacob Faust and others

- 41 Jacob Hutto with wife, Margaret Tshudy was wed by or before 1753 as noted in #40 ...also note #37 that Jacob Hutto and wife Margaret are still listed in the church records...also note that Jacob Hutto as God father in #39, is evidently the Jacob Hutto (Son #19) whose wife was Margaret Tshudy.....The Jacob Hutto #39 who married Anna Wannenmaker is likely a grandson of Isaac Hutto #19.

- 42 PETER HUTTO/ (Son #19) married Margaret Barbara Shuler.....

Isaac Hutto b. 4 Dec. 1748, son of Peter & Margaret Barbara Hutto was baptized in the Orangeburg Church Jan. 20th 1750...Godparents were, Isaac & Charles Hutto (Brother of Peter) & Ann Margaret w.of George Shuler

49 Baptized Whit Sunday 1749, Ann, the daughter of John & Barbara Potts, Godparents were Isaac Ottow, Mrs. Ann Ottow & Elizabeth Tshudy.

50 ISAAC HUTTO Jr. (Son #19) I was unable to find in the church register any wife for him or any children baptized.

51 Many pages are missing from the Church register... also pages 381 to 396 as well as pages 572 to 583 are completely lost... many pages are torn and many not legible enough to read.

52 The Episcopal Church at Orangeburg was organized as a Lutheran Church and many of the members did not come into the Episcopal Church and hence there are no records... Again the Church register after 1762 has been lost. There were also branch churches at Amelia and at St. Matthews and no register for these two branch churches has been found.

This concludes all the Hutto names as shown in the old Church book of the Episcopal Church of the Redeemer of Orangeburg, S.C.... I will now take up the Hutto names as they show in the S.C. State Archives in Columbia, S.C.

- 71b Some proved children of HENRY HUTTO and his wife, Ann Zorn. 10
 Rebecca Hutto Harry Hutto m. Jacob Jackson (Polly Jackson)
 John Hutto William Hutto m. Lucy Montgomery.
 Benjamin Hutto Charles Hutto m. Miss Jeter m. Miss Gellman
 Nicholas Hutto Jacob Hutto m. Elizabeth Gillam.

There were other children, but whether they grew to maturity, is not known.

Old Henry Hutto and wife and some other members of the family are buried in a family graveyard in Barnwell County.

Since Henry Hutto named a son, Jacob Hutto, he is likely the son of Jacob Hutto #39, altho the birth date does not fit..BUT the Henry Hutto, son of Peter #42 was born in 1752...Henry #71 did not have a son named Peter, therefore, I am inclined to think Henry #71 a son of Jacob #39.

- 72 Mrs. Marcus C. Diamond of Barnwell, S.C. sends me her descent from Henry Hutto #71 as follows :

Henry Hutto 1750-1817 m. in 1780 to Ann Zorn. & they had a son :

 Bessie Sellers married Marcus C. Diamond of Barnwell, S.C.

- 73 JABEZ B. HUTTO, now living in Denmark, S.C. and aged past 90, is the only living child of Rufus and Julia E. Nobles Hutto.

- 74 IF Mrs. Diamond could furnish me with the list of all the children of all the Hutto's in #72 with whom they wed, it would add greatly to this ms. on Hutto....Barnwell has many Hutto deeds and some administrations on Hutto BUT in the main they are of the Henry Hutto #71 set.

The Hutto line of the children of Mrs. Jack Hutto.

- 75 LUCIA SARAH HUTTO wed Charles Ray and among their children was.... Sina E. Ray, who wed NIMMONS HUTTO and they had three children :

 Mrs. Sina E. Ray Hutto is still living and aged 96....Mrs. Jack Hutto is to contact her and get the names of her grandparents on Hutto side and also the parents of Nimmons Hutto, the husband of Mrs. Sina E. Hutto...I trust that you can secure all the children of these Hutto couples and any data available.

- 75a NIMMONS HUTTO is buried in an old Hutto Family graveyard near Govan, S.C.

- 76 RACHEL HUTTO (A sister of Nimmons Hutto/ #75a) was married to D.E. Sojourner of Denmark, S.C....they had a son, the Rev. J.R. Sojourner b. 24 Dec. 1833 in Barnwell County, S.C....He wed Miss Elanche Beaufort Browning 27 Dec. 1858....Data taken from Methodist Ministers of S.C.

Hutto #1 Family

The Otto/Hutto Family of Orangeburg, South Carolina

Much of the following information was obtained from a transcription of the diary of the Reverend John Ulrich Gissendanner, who came with the third contingent of German and Swiss immigrants to the Orangeburg District, South Carolina, to become the first pastor of the Lutheran Church in the Carolinas. The first contingent of immigrants had arrived two years earlier, when they disembarked at Charleston Harbour, on Sunday, 26 July 1735. A second group arriving the following year, comprised immigrants from two areas, with the Germans coming from the Lower Palatinate, (formerly the Bavarian States) now called the Rheinland-Pfaltz, while the Switzers came from the cantons of Bern, Zurich, and the Grisons.

Isaac Otto, his wife, Maria Catherina, and seven children are believed to have immigrated from their home in Sobernheim (or Staudernheim) in southwestern Germany, travelled down the River Rhine to Rotterdam or some other port in Holland where they bought passage to America, arriving at the port of Charlestown. Eighty miles west of Charlestown, Isaac Otto received a Royal Grant of 350 acres on the Pon Pon River in the Orangeburg District, 01 Mar 1743, and a town lot, number 282, on Fenwick Street, in Orangeburg. Edgar Hutto, author of a book on the Hutto family in South Carolina states that: "he is of the opinion that the Hutto family which is to be found in many parts of the United States are descendants of Isaac Otto and his wife who settled on the Pon Pon (Edisto) River near Orangeburg in the period of 1735-1737."

On Saturday, 15 August 1752, Isacc Otto's body was discovered on a path leading to his home, and was buried the following Monday at his plantation, along with his granddaughter, Susannah who had died after a short illness, age one year. Isaac Otto, according to his obituary, was aged 57, at the time of his death, leaving his wife, Maria Catherina, and seven children, four of whom were married. This being the case, Isaac Otto would have been born about 1697. His wife, Maria Catherina, remarried 24 April 1753, to Henry Mell.

Etymologically, the present surname Hutto, is a corruption of the surname Otto, a derivation from the old Germanic word "ot(t)ar" or "otr," believed originating from the germanic tribe of the "otter" or "water-snake"? This corruption was derived from the combination of the Germanic velar pronunciation of "ottar," combined with regional dialects. Earlier generations, perhaps the first and second generations born in America, were most likely bilingual, speaking fluent German and English. However, among written records, spellings during this period was still generally "phonetic," and the name "Hutto" can be directly attributed to Gissendanner's diary. In 1742, it is spelled "Hotlow" and also "Hottow." By 1755, the common spelling had become "Huttow," and eventually the shortened form of "Hutto" replaced these earlier versions, and is still in use today. A partial genealogy of Isaac Otto's descendants is presented within the following pages, and although not complete, the book by Edgar Hutto, examines in greater detail the more comprehensive branches of the Hutto family in South Carolina and other parts of the U.S., but obviously omitting the material provided here on the Hutto family of Shelby County, Texas.

The Otto/Hutto Family of Orangeburg, South Carolina

At present the editor has not been able to ascertain the generation which links the Hutto family which migrated west to east Texas with the family in South Carolina, but has no doubts that they indeed descend from the single progenitor of Isaac Otto, circa 1697-1752.

6. Jacob², married 03 Dec 1754, Margaret Fichtner; served in the militia and in the rebellion against Great Britain.
Issue: Not recorded in Gissendanner diary.

This terminates what information is contained on the Otto family as recorded in the Gissendanner Diary (1737-1761). The diary of Reverend Johann Ulrich Gissendanner was continued after his death by his successor, a nephew up until 1761, with numerous breaks. This editor confirmed much of the above information, which was extracted and confirmed during an examination of a manuscript translation between the original German to English undertaken in 1863. The following information has been retrieved from various sources and manuscripts, and has been referenced to some extent, but it still needs authenticating. The symbol † denotes the possible parentage of George S. Hutto (1797-1888) of Henry County, Alabama.

Isaac Otto (Now Hutto) came to South Carolina from Germany 1715 or 1716 and settled in the Orangeburg Territory. It is presumed that all Huttos are descended from him since no other Otto is known to have misspelled his own name. It is presumed above that David Hutto was Isaac's great grandson, but it is possible that they are one generation further removed.

Harry Dantzer followed the same route as Isaac Hutto in 1739. Elizabeth Strober came to America in 1732, probably as a child also from Germany. He married a Carn, first name not known, about 1740-45. Harry Dantzer's son Jacob Dantzer married Elizabeth Strober's daughter Barbara Carn Oct 2, 1771. Jacob and Barbara had 10 children. Their daughter Elizabeth, born 1776, was grandmother of Rev. William David Hutto. Their daughter Margaret Dantzer, born 1776, was the grandmother of Rev. Hutto's wife, Catherine Bull.

Dear Mrs. Strickland,

I can't thank you enough for the information you sent me on the Huttos, Stricklands, and Meadows! It has been wonderful reading, especially the history on the Huttos arrival in Orangeburg, South Carolina.

Attached is the information you requested on Darlie Ann Hutto's children. According to family knowledge, her husband Thomas Holliman was shot accidentally by his brother John while turkey hunting during the 1860's. It is also rumored that after Thomas died, Darlie Ann hired a farmhand with the last name of Forehand and he most likely fathered Frances and Jacob Holliman. Forehand supposedly moved on to Texas before 1870. Unfortunately, we cannot find any documentation of Forehand since he came after the 1860 census and left before the 1870 census. If you have any research ideas on how to find Forehand, please let me know.

Thank you once again for all the information you sent and please don't hesitate to contact me if I can be of any assistance to you.

Sincerely,

Annette Heagler
